

For those who prefer to take their holiday at a more leisurely pace than Torquay and the surrounding area offers a wide range of theatres, museums and cultural attractions.

The local history and landmarks can provide enough to see and do for most people's holidays. The wonderful Bygone Victorian Museum transports you to an era forgotten, or in the case of children, an era never even experienced. Perhaps a trip to Brixham to see the Golden Hind and get a unique insight to life onboard a 16th century sailing ship.

The local area has a wide variety of architecture and history to explore too, especially some of the more charismatic sites such as Oldway Mansion and Torre Abbey.
